PIANO CONCERTO.

CONCERTO, in B flat minor.....	5 00
--------------------------------	------

The most effective Concerto of modern times. It adds another link to the chain of great modern Concertos, such as Liszt's E flat major, Rubinstein's D minor, Schumann's A minor and Saint-Saens' G minor.

The orchestral accompaniment is arranged and published as a second piano part and is printed above the solo part, thus making it unusually acceptable for college concerts and such concerts where an orchestra cannot be obtained.

GONDOLIERA.

Clavierstück.

Louis Conrath.

Moderato. ♩ = 88. To insure a refined and scholarly rendition of the piece, the artistic use of the pedal as indicated is imperative.

The first system of musical notation for 'Gondoliera'. It consists of a grand staff with a treble and bass clef. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is common time (C). The tempo is marked 'Moderato' with a quarter note equal to 88 beats per minute. The music begins with a piano (p) dynamic. The right hand plays a melody with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines. A 'Pedal.' line is shown below the bass staff, indicating when to press and release the sustain pedal. The system ends with a fermata over the final note.

The second system of musical notation. It continues the piece with similar melodic and harmonic textures. The dynamics shift to 'espress.' (expressivo). The system includes markings for 'rit.' (ritardando) and 'a tempo'. The pedal line continues to guide the performer's use of the sustain pedal.

The third system of musical notation. The music features more complex chordal textures and moving lines in both hands. The dynamic is marked 'cres.' (crescendo). The pedal line indicates the timing of pedal changes throughout the system.

Poco animato.

The fourth system of musical notation, marked 'Poco animato'. The tempo is slightly increased. The music features a more active melody in the right hand and a steady accompaniment in the left. The pedal line continues to be present.

The fifth and final system of musical notation. It concludes the piece with a return to the 'a tempo' marking. The music features a final melodic flourish in the right hand. The system ends with a double bar line and a final pedal indication.
